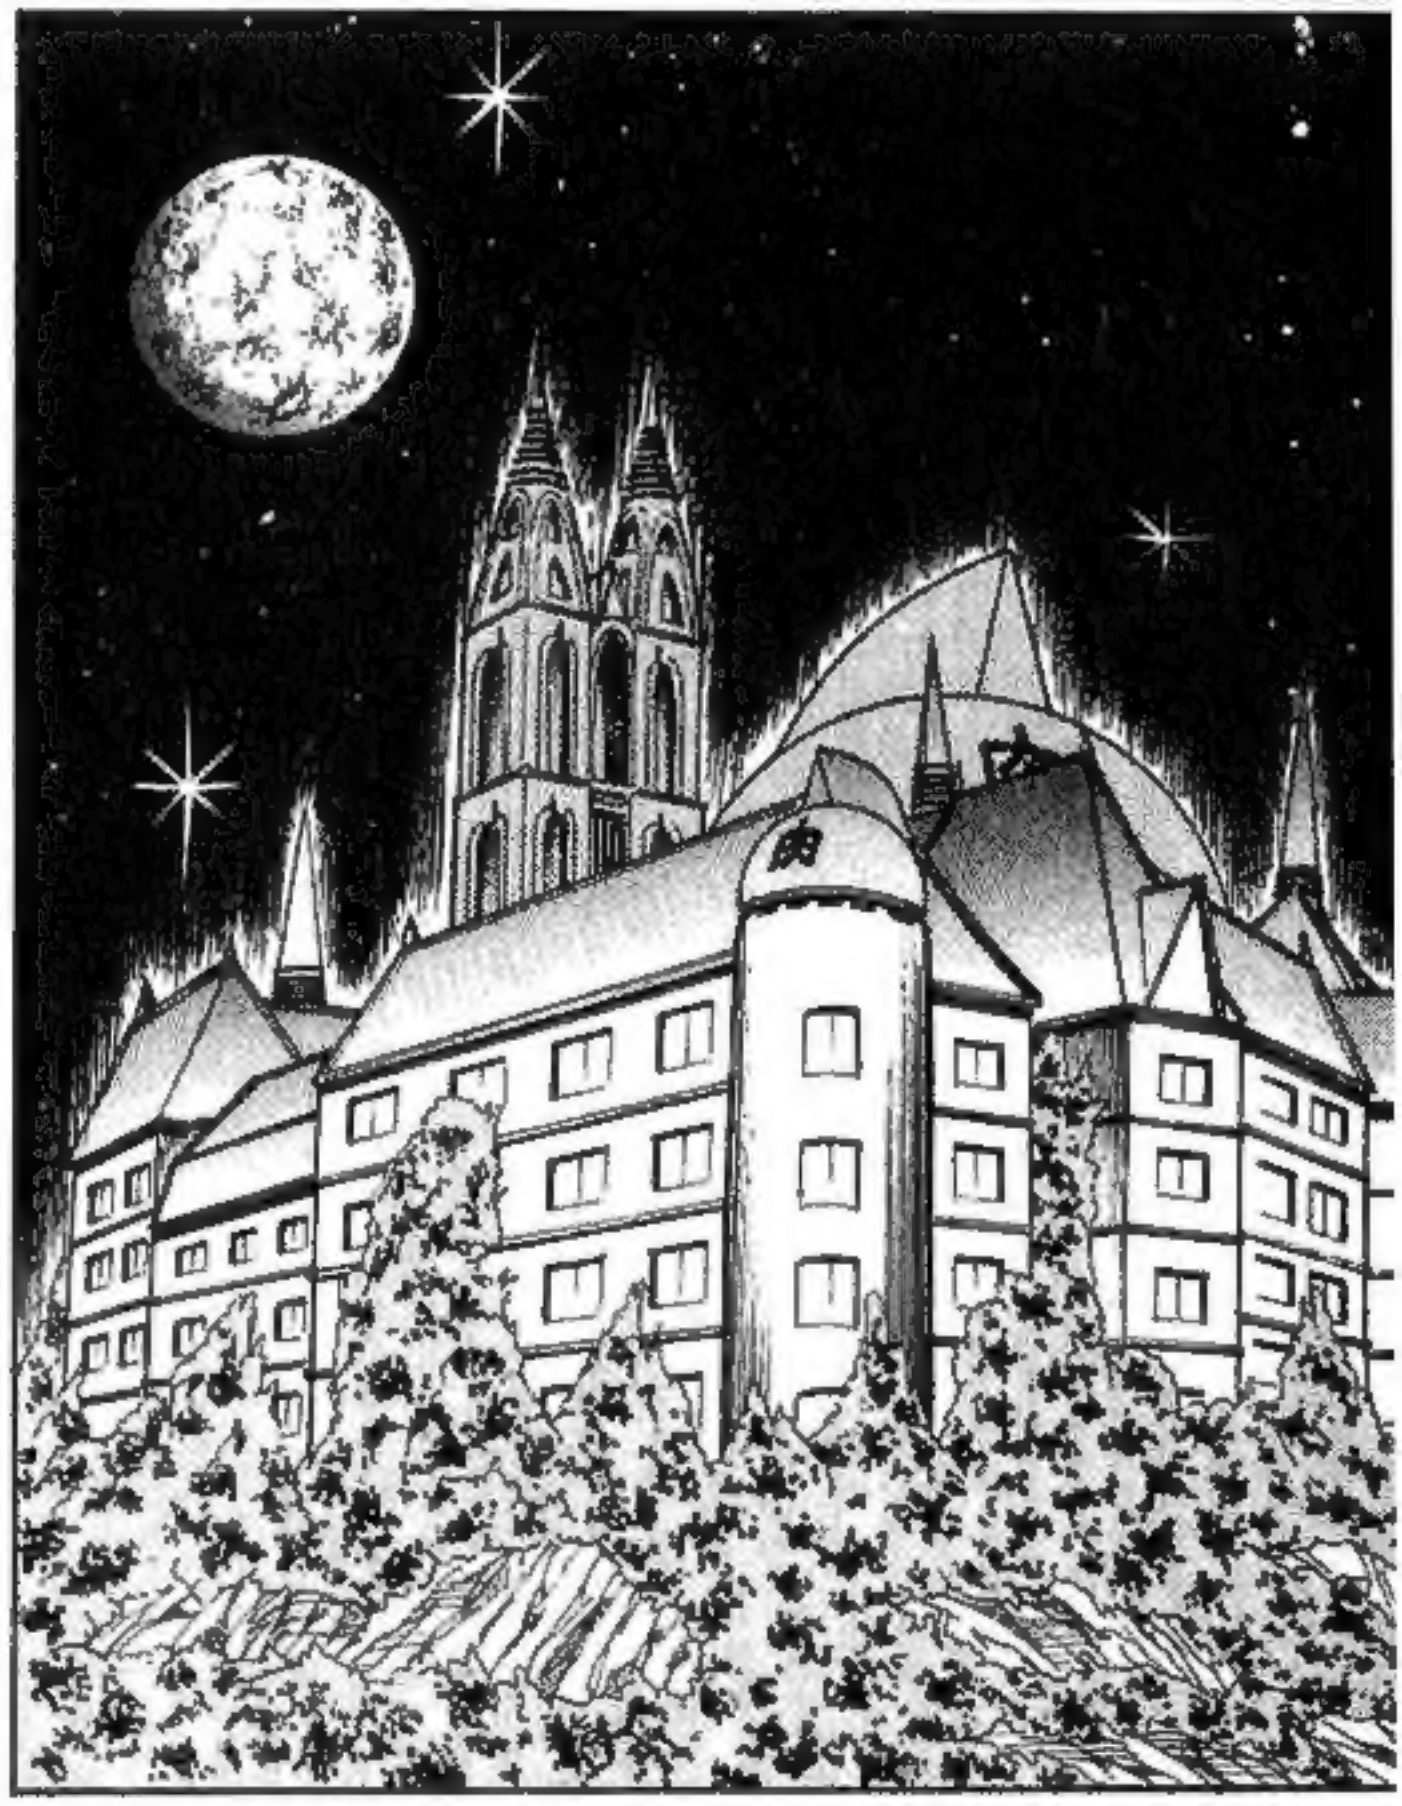
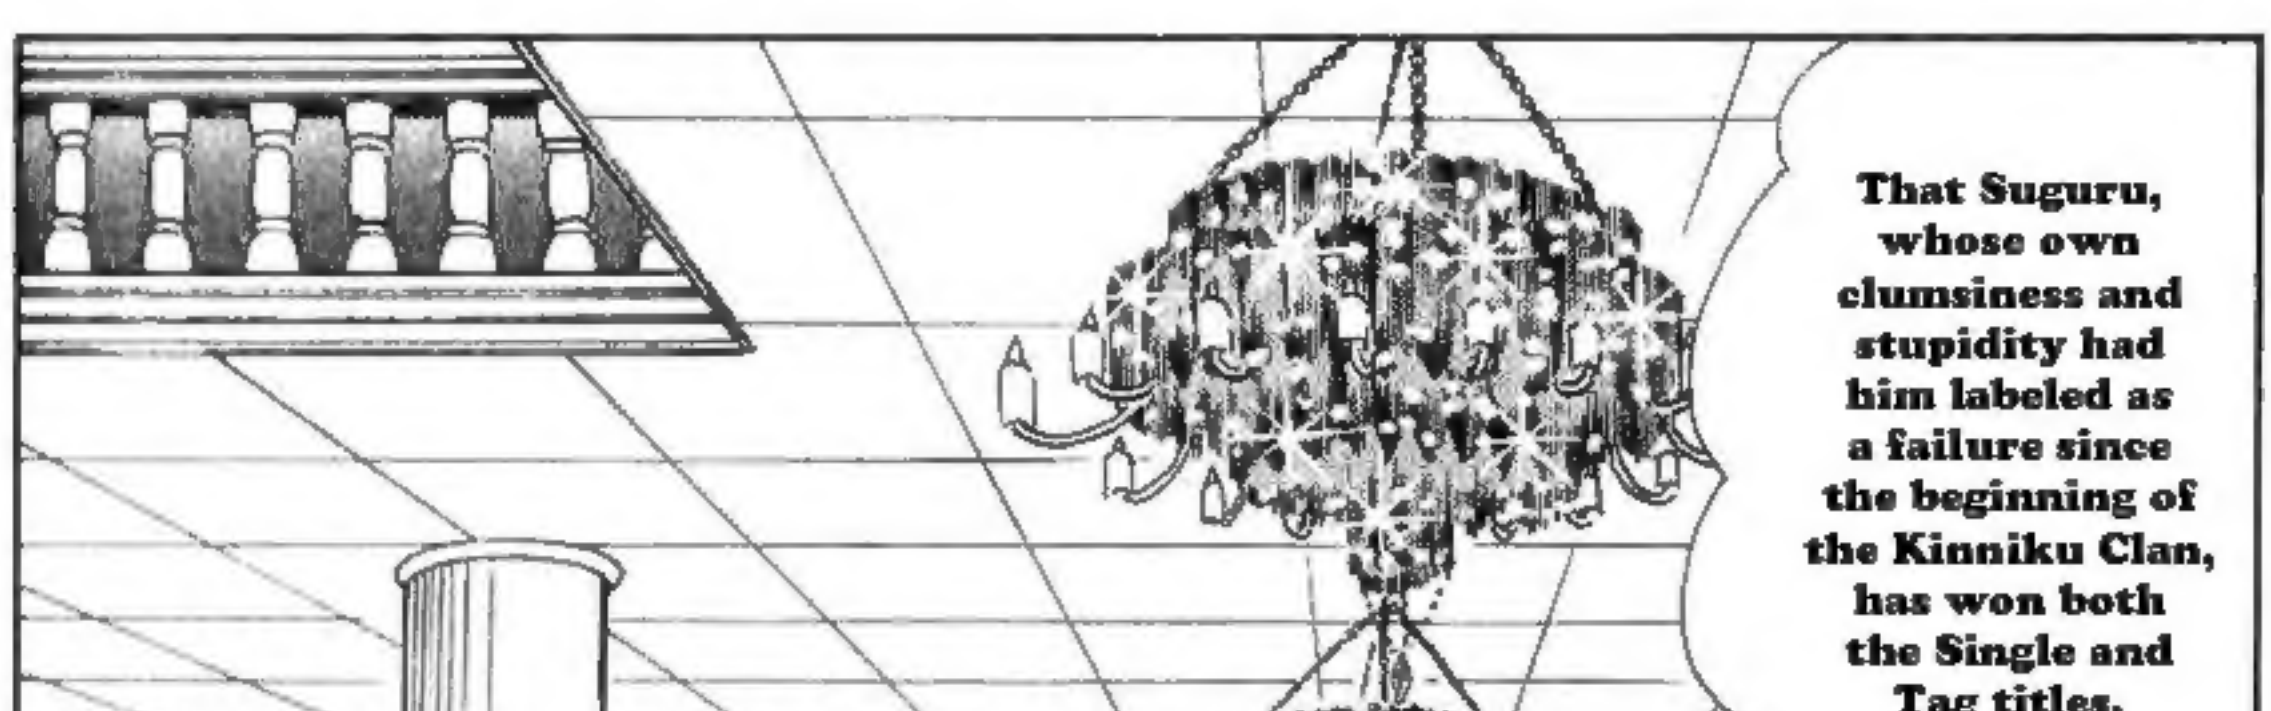
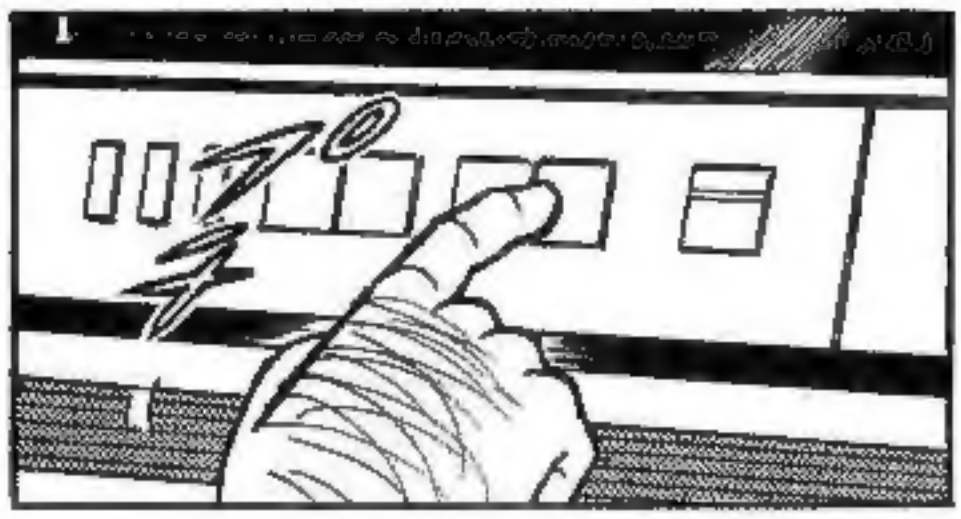
sniff

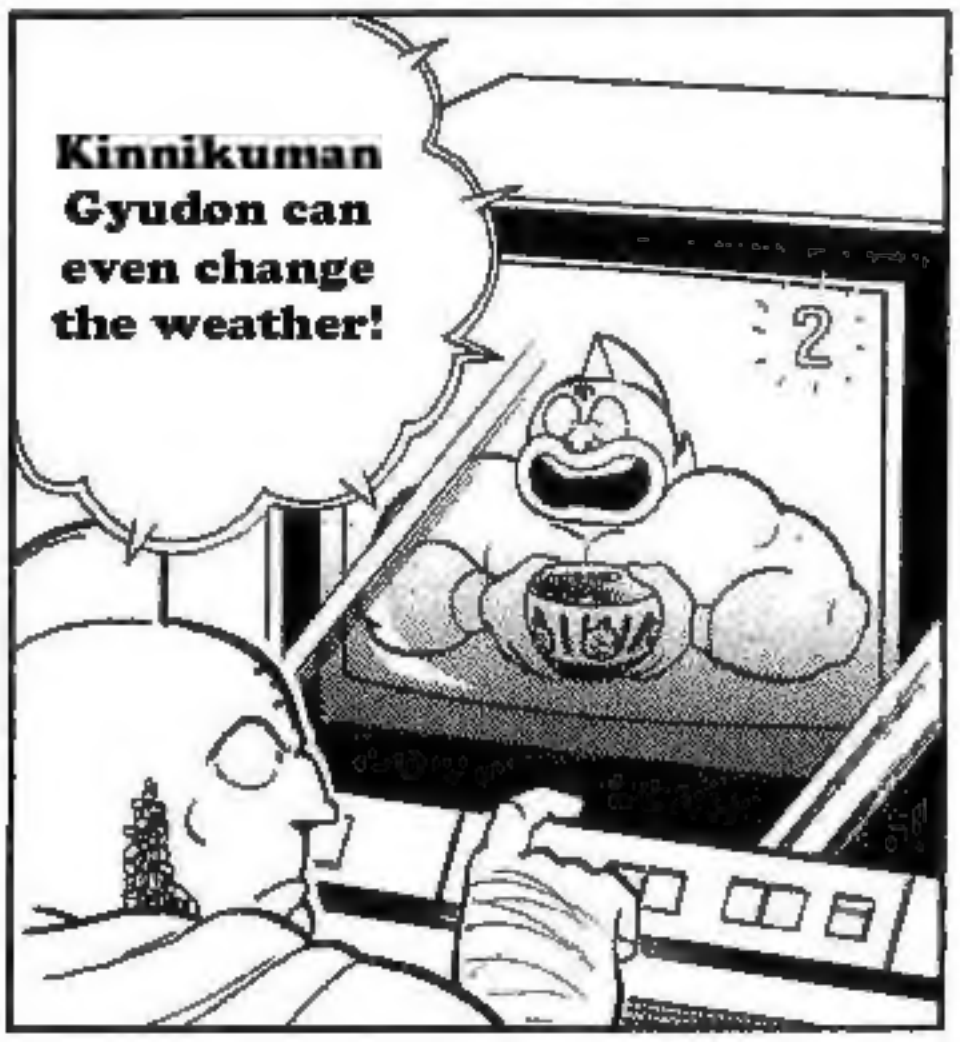




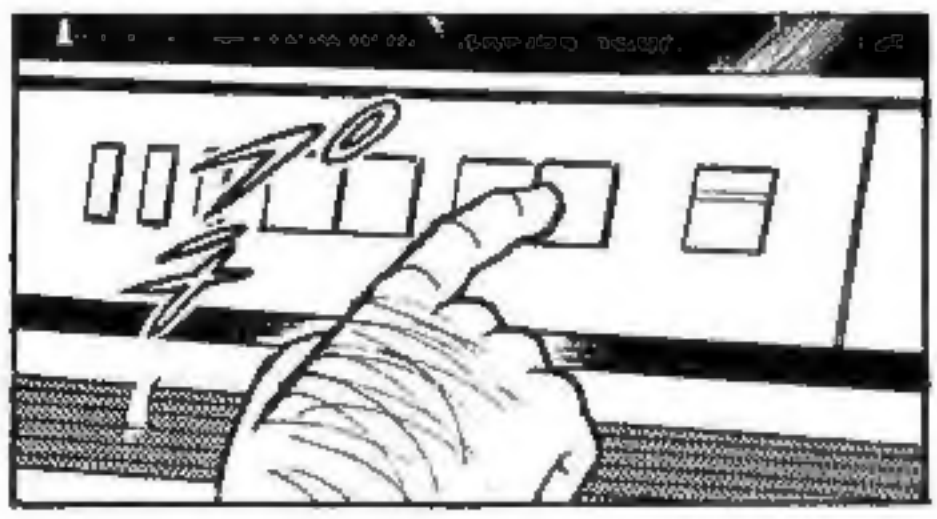
That Suguru, whose own clumsiness and stupidity had him labeled as a failure since the beginning of the Kinniku Clan, has won both the Single and Tag titles.
Those great accomplishments, that not even our ancestors could do, have completely removed those labels.

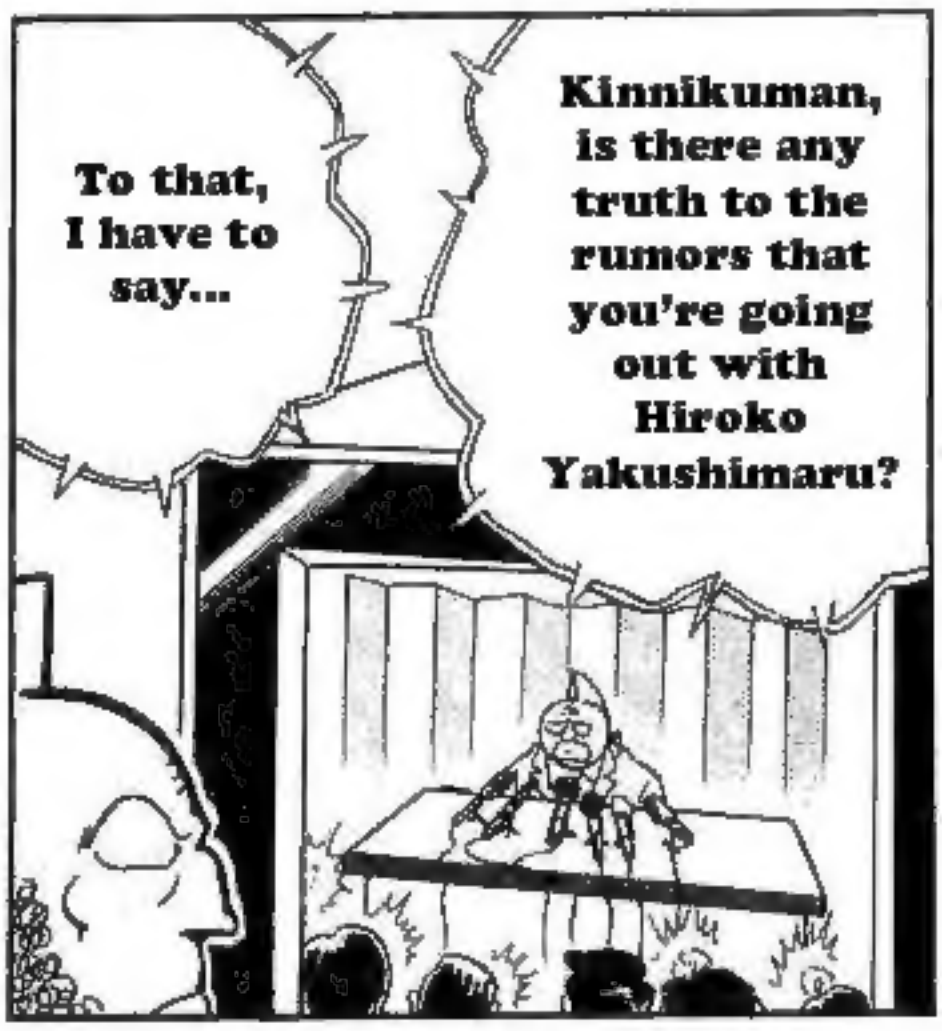


All of the magazines and TV shows that used to ignore Suguru have all been filled with Kinnikuman stories every day since he became a universal hero.



24 years ago, I wanted to strangle you many times due to that ugly face back when you were born...
Now I'm greatful that I managed to resist that urge.





Note: Hiroko Yakushimaru is a Japanese actress who was popular in the late 70s and early 80s.

57th Emperor of Planet Kinniku: Mayumi Kinniku

The previous kings should certainly be pleased...

It's been over-straining on my for a long time, now... Since Suguru is starting to be more active, I think it's best for me to retire.

It can't be! Dear, are you planning on passing Planet Kinniku's throne to Suguru!?

Well mama, I think it's finally time to put up Suguru's picture next to mine.

Our life-long dream is finally coming true!

Dear, you're so wonderful. Now Suguru can finally sit on the king's throne!

But it's not up to me to select the next king of Planet Kinniku.

However, just getting the attention of the gods isn't enough. They also have to approve of his personality.

First, I have to get the approval of the Chojin Committee. After that, Suguru, the candidate for king, will make his appeal to the 105 Gods in the heavens. Once he gets approval from all of those gods, he can finally become the king.

わ

Right! Right!

But with Sugru's recent accomplishments and raging popularity, even the 105 gods won't have a reason not to let him become king!

CELESTIAL WORLD-- LAND OF THE CHOJIN GODS

He doesn't seem to understand that although 100 of the gods will have no objections to it, we, the five Evil Gods, won't do that.

Does Mayumi Kinniku really believe that the Chojin gods will approve of Kinnikuman as the new king?

But after he crushed the Seven Devil Chojin and Six Devil Knights, I noticed that his power had increased slightly...

Until now, he was just a worthless Chojin who wasn't on anyone's radar.

You were correct, God of Intellegence. We did need to pay special attention to the Chojin known as Kinnikuman.

Chojin Power isn't supposed to increase or decrease from the moment a Chojin is given the power to the day he dies!

That... can't be!

Of course, since he fights powerful opponents with his own hands and manages to defeat them, then that means he's a Chojin who's capable of rapidly increasing his power... In other words, he's a Chojin who possesses a growing power!

Even the Perfect Chojin, who are the closest to us gods, end up like this when facing Kinnikuman!

Therefore, the Chojin known as Kinnikuman is terrifying...

OOH!

While watching the finals of the Tag Tournament, I investigated Kinnikuman's Chojin Power with this power gun, but...

Speaking of Neptune King, he has 50 Million Chojin Power! How could Kinnikuman, who only has 950 Thousand Power at most, have done this to him?

No matter how carefully I watched him, his Chojin Power didn't increase at all...

The power gun, which can only measure Chojin Power up to 50 Million, was destroyed. I guess Kinnkuman's Inner Strength must have reached about 80 Million.

Burning Inner Strength!

Then, when I had finally given up my investigation, a disaster suddenly occured with his power!

...he won't be able to use his Burning Inner Strength!

As long as Kinnikuman doesn't get into another desperate situation...

Ugh... our Chojin Strength as gods is only 100 Million...

If we're going to defeat Kinnikuman, we need to do it now, while his power is still weaker than ours... We need to stop him from taking the Throne of Planet Kinniku and becoming leader of all Chojin!

If that happened, then it would be bad for us Evil Gods...

But if he ever learned how to control the Burning Inner Strength at will...

...then Kinnikuman would be able to even challenge the heavens!

Take a look at this.

What!?

Heh heh heh... Don't worry, everyone. I've obtained some information that will make sure that he never takes the throne of Planet Kinniku!

The very first cry of Suguru Kinniku was heard.

In the Planet Kinniku 8th Hospital on April 1st, 1960, 24 years ago...

On that day, when all five of the babies were together in the newborn ward...

At that time, in the very same moment and hospital, five other boys were born. That's when destiny decided to play a prank of it's own.

WAAAH! WAAAH!

On that day, a huge fire broke out at the hospital.

MY BABY!

Suguru!

No, mama! It's dangerous!

The six beds that held the babies had fallen over, making them unable to use them to identify the children.

The six mothers were shocked when they entered the newborn ward.

Thus, we skip ahead 24 years to the present to reach the point of the story...

Even so, the urgent situation forced the mothers to guess which child was theirs.

Hahahahaha, that's interesting. If Kinnikuman is just a stranger and not the son of Mayumi Kinniku, then he can't hold the honor of the crown!

Of course!

If we can find the children who were mixed up in the fire, then we can make them think that Kinnikuman isn't the real son of Mayumi Kinniku!

For the five remaining candidates who may be decended from Mayumi Kinniku!

Shouldn't each of us search for them with our own hands?

Of course, this alone won't be enough to erase Kinnikuman from the world of Chojin...

Right. We'll loan the powers that we're blessed with to the five unfortunate children.

cough cough
I grabbed you during the confusion of the fire, but...

What? I might be the prince of Planet Kinniku!?

If that's the case, then it's my fault you had to be so poor...

It may have been the prince of Planet Kinniku that I had grabbed.

You shall be loaned the power of the God of Intellegence!

Phoenixman!

From today forward, you are no longer Phoenixman!

You shall henceforth be known as "Kinnikuman Super Phoenix"!

DEN'EN CHOUFU

The attacks of the Evil Gods continued... but Kinnikuman, who was happily getting ready to succeed the throne, remained unaware...

My only enemy is Kinniku-man!

ガヌ

Suguru, the chairman has approved of you as the next king of Planet Kinniku!

Yep. After you've finished appearing before the 105 Chojin Gods, you'll be the next king for sure.

Is it true, Papa?

Congratulations, Kinnikuman!

Heh heh heh... Kinnikuman, enjoy it while you can. We're coming for you...

Hurrah!

DEN'EN CHOFU

...the next king of Planet Kinniku!

58th King of Planet Kinniku CELEBRATION

The is the beginning of the era of Suguru Kinniku...

ROBIN

Heh heh heh... That idiot hasn't even appealed to the Chojin Gods yet, and he already thinks he'll be the next king of Planet Kinniku...

At any rate, he'll soon suspect that he's a fake prince who isn't decended from Mayumi Kinniku...

Even though you have the approval of the Chojin Committee, we Evil Gods won't let you become the king of Planet Kinniku so easily...

We must go and find the remaining candidates quickly!

I've heard that several of us have already discovered candidates for the throne to replace Suguru Kinniku, transferred our power into them, and sent them to Japan: God of Intellegence's Kinnikman Super Phoenix, God of Technique's Kinnikuman Zebra, and the God of Brutality's Kinnikuman Soldier.

Then our five candidates can have a match to discover who the real successor to the throne is!

As you wish, God of Flight!

Here, leave this to me.

A DISTANT PLANET

Heave-ho! Heave-ho!

Wow!

It's Strong-man!

Strongman the outdoorsman, you shall borrow the power of the God of Strength!

A DISTANT PLANET

Stop, thief!

Starting today, your name is Kinnikuman Big Body!

What an amazing jump!

You are the final Candidate throne: Kinnkuman Mariposa!

George the Thief! You will be loaned the powers of the God of flight!

ヒロカ

……

I'm a candidate for the Throne of Planet Kinnikuu? This should be interesting!

THUS, THE DESTINED FIVE WHO WOULD PREVENT KINNIKUMAN TAKING THE THRONE WERE GATHERED!

It's time for the coronation ceremony for the next king of Planet Kinniku!

Everyone, right here at Kokuritsu Stadium, the historic event is about to begin!

KOKURITSU STADIUM

The next king of Planet Kinniku has been chosen as our very own Kinnikuman!

All of the people in the stadium today, myself included, are about to witness history!

American Chojin Terryman, you have been appointed Staff Officer of the Justice Chojin Corps!

I'll accept it with honor.

Before the enthroneman ceremony, we shall hold a rank promotion for the Justice Chojin who have been remarkable in recent times!

English Chojin Robin Mask, you have been appointed Chief of Staff of the Justice Chojin Corps!

I gladly accept.

And now what we've all been waiting for: the enthronement ceremony for Suguru Kinniku, the next king of Planet Kinniku!

The cheers have gotten louder as all eyes have turned to the entrance to the stadium!

The next king of Planet Kinniku, Kinnikuman is entering the arena with Meat marching in front!

Prince, who was once a no-good Chojin, is getting so much encouragement from the audience... I knew this day would come...

The whole audience is showing their approval for the new king!

You've done it, Kinnikuman!

Way to go, Kinnikuman!

Hey, hey, clam down!

Well, due to all of the kindness you've shown me in the past, I can forgive my butlers just this once.

You can't just call me "Kinnikuman" anymore! You have to call me "Next King Kinnikman"!

Cough... And now we will hold the hold the inheritance of the King's Scepter from the previous king of Planet Kinniku, Mayumi Kinniku, to the next king, Suguru Kinniku!

A person called "king" has to be loved by all of the people. Right now you're just being selfish, Prince...

cough

Call me "King"!

Uh...

Haha!

You have to be even more diligent now, so please do your best...

Your facial hair makes me feel more like a real king than some scepter!

What are you doing, Suguru!?

ブチ

WAAAH!

If Kinnikuman's features, such as his popularity and personality, aren't see as worthy by the 105 Chojin Gods, then he won't be approved as the next king!

Whatever, just forget that and go make your appeal to the 105 Chojin Gods!

ｳｨｰﾝ

ｳｨｰﾝ

The Chojin Gods are decending to see Suguru's moment of triumph!

The sky is clouding up...

ボワ

ボワ

ボワ

ボワ

Suguru Kinniku, today you are certainly dignified.

Haha.

ペコ

The Chojin Gods have arrived!

And in each of these fights, you've completely awakened violent Chojin into Justice!

We, the Chojin Gods, have carefully watched your activities for many years. Your fight with the Devil Chojin, the Six Devil Knights, and the Perfect Chojin have shown you bravely face the crises of humanity without fear.

It's really easy to flatter you like that, but in truth we were a bit worried...

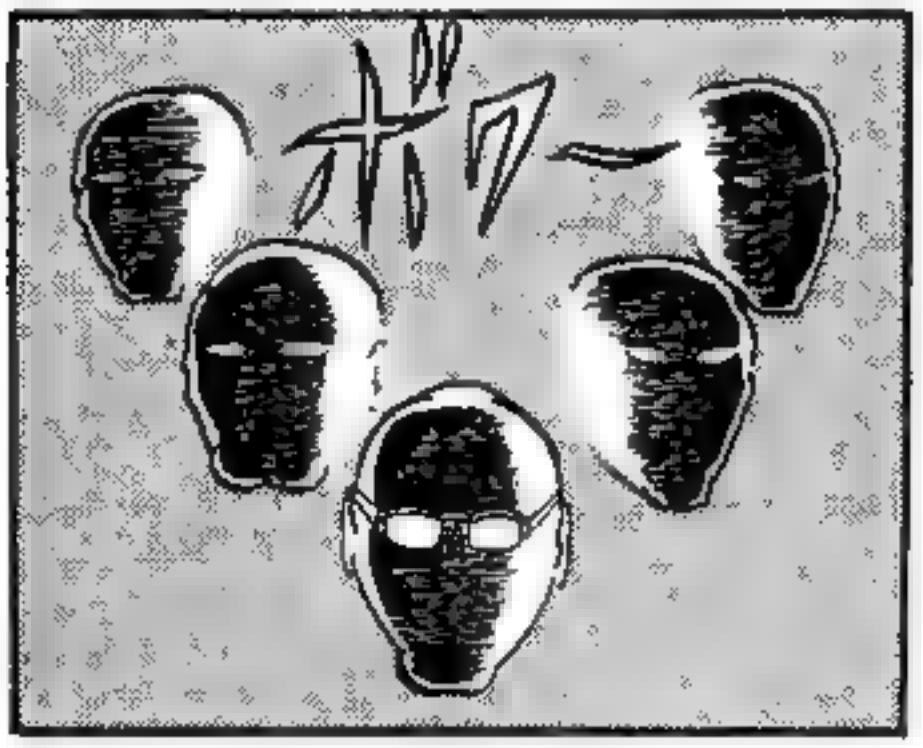
It's true that your accomplishments are many...

...we hundred are unanimous in approving Kinnikuman as king!

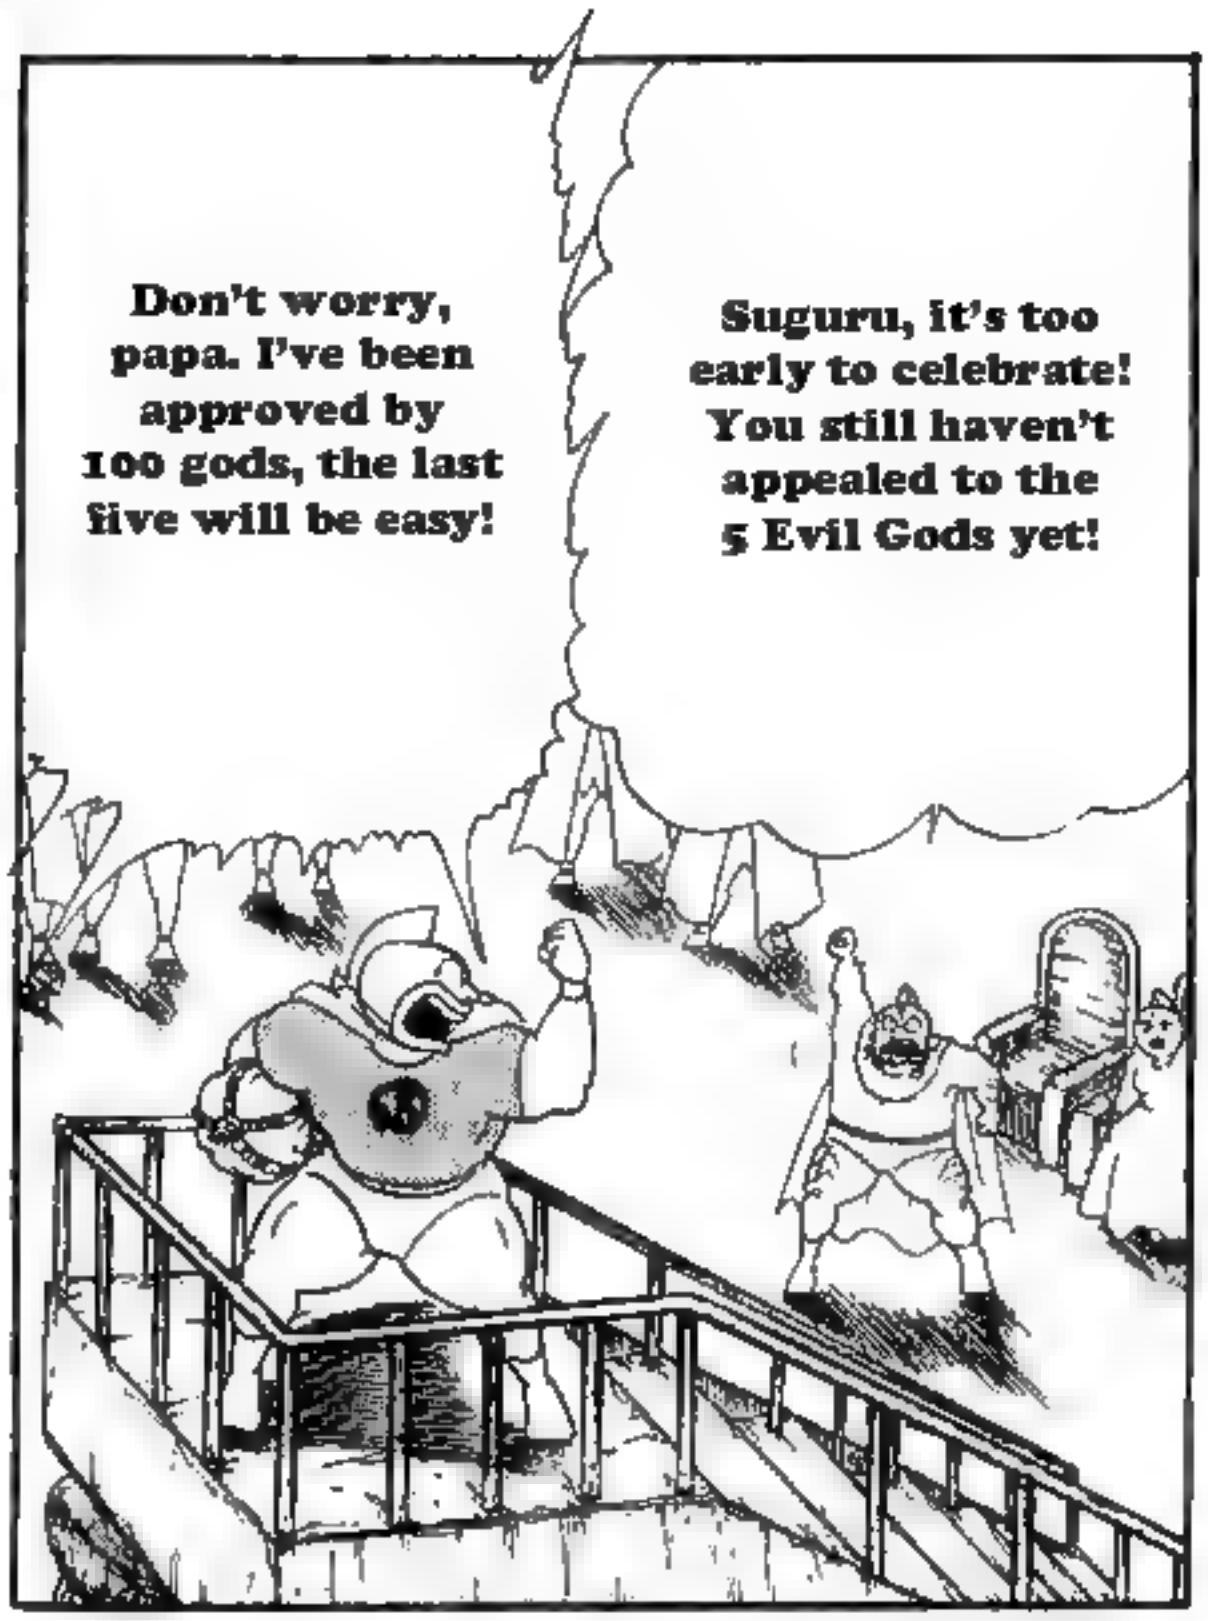
Assuming that your character matures after becoming king...

I did it.

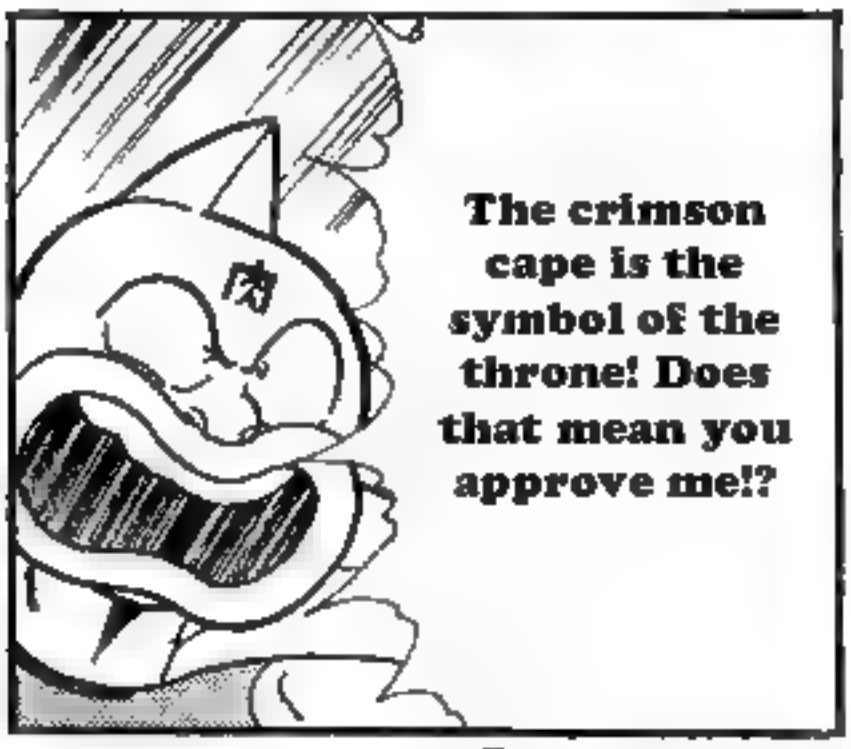
We hundred grant this crown to Kinnikuman!



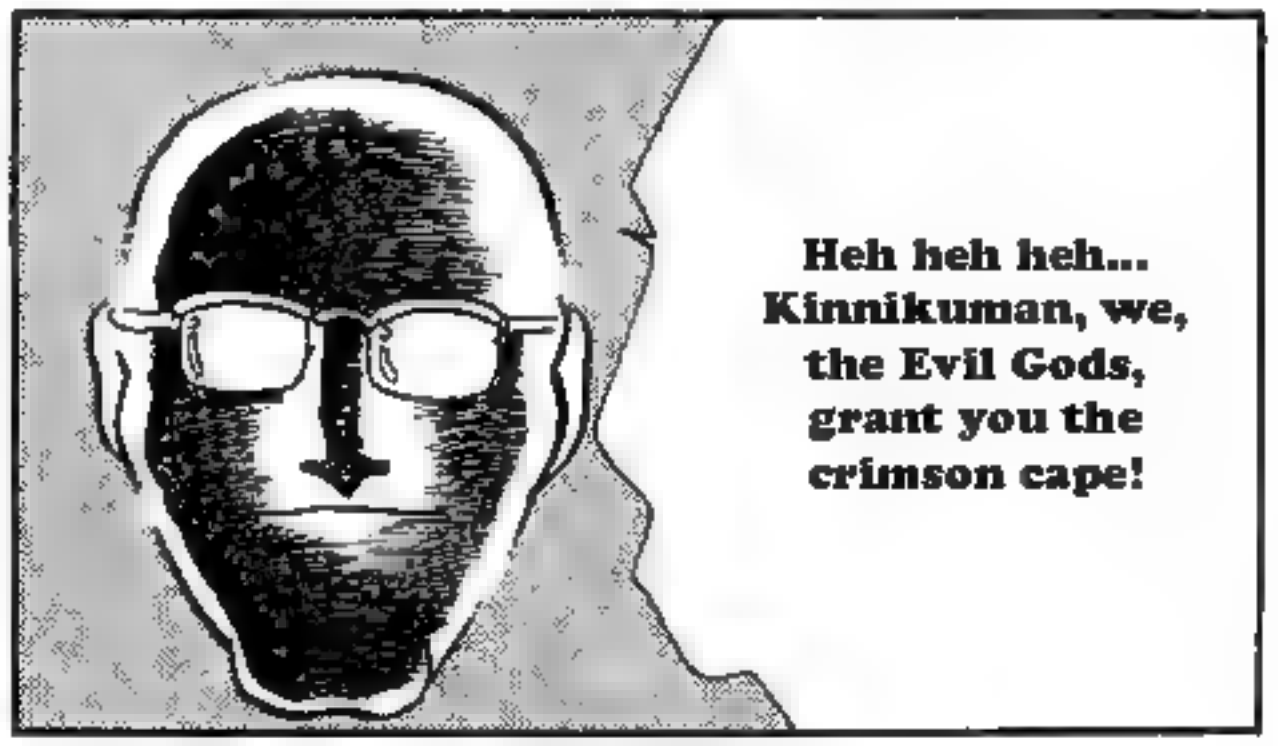
ガー



Don't worry, papa. I've been approved by 100 gods, the last five will be easy!
Suguru, it's too early to celebrate! You still haven't appealed to the 5 Evil Gods yet!

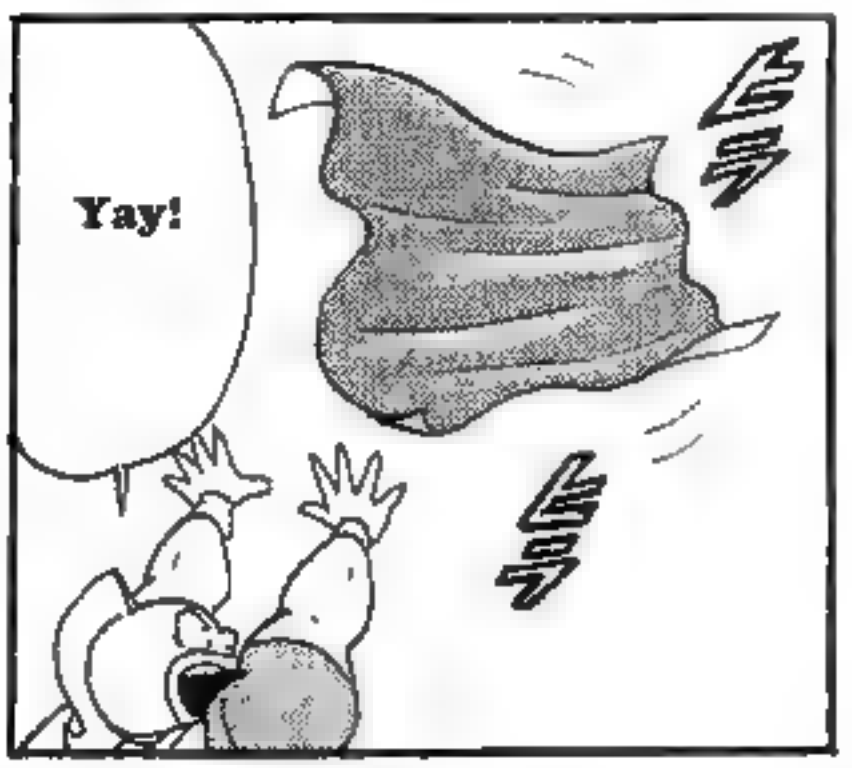


The crimson cape is the symbol of the throne! Does that mean you approve me!?



Heh heh heh... Kinnikuman, we, the Evil Gods, grant you the crimson cape!

I've done it!



Yay!

Geh!

Huh!?

Kinnikuman, look closer! That isn't the crimson cape, it's just a white cape!

That means that we don't approve of you as the Throne Successor.

We're not joking, we're giving you this white cape.

Why are you Chojin Gods making a joke at a time like this!?

What!?

We support Throne Candidates other than Kinnikuman!

Eeh?

Lightning is coming down!

Huh...!?

These are the Throne Successor Candidates that we reccomend!

Suguru Kinniku, who you call your son, may in reality be a complete stranger who isn't decended from you!

You idiots! The Throne of Planet Kinniku can only be held by someone who has the blood of mama and I! That means it can only be Suguru!

Queen of Planet Kinniku, you should remember about the great fire that occured at the hospital were Suguru Kinniku was born 24 years ago!

Huh!?

How could you say such a horrible thing!?

Given the way the situation was, the mothers all grabbed the child they guessed was theirs.

At that time, there were five babies other than Suguru Kinniku sleeping in that same hospital... However, in the chaos of the fire, the six fell from the beds they were sleeping in.

わ…わたしの赤ちゃん

If you had taken the wrong child by mistake, then one of these five children has the real blood of Mayumi Kinniku, and not Suguru Kinniku!

Mama!

Ooh!

These five Chojin are those children!

Scramble for the Kinniku Throne ③

Despair! Kinnikuman!

A Team Kinniku Release

It's true!

Those birthmarks on thier backs is the KIN mark that only appears on high class members of the Kinniku Clan!

One of those five might be heir to the throne who was born from Mama and I!?

Please wait! I swear that during the chaos of the fire 24 years ago that the child I grabbed truly was my child, Suguru! It's a mother's instinct! I couldn't have mistaken him for another!

Hm...

Ma... Mayumi!

Heh heh heh, well then, do you admit that these five are proper candidates?

So then...

Can you really identify you child from another with all of those raging flames and enveloping smoke?

...while the real prince may have lived in poverty with a leaking roof and nothing to eat!

Due to your mistake at the time, an undeserving child could have lived in luxury on Planet Kinniku for 24 years...

What!?

Those other five all claim to be heirs to the Throne who have the KIN marks on their bodies, but how do you know that's the mark of the prince and not just a normal KIN mark!?

Hey Evil Gods, all you've been doing is calling me a fake prince who isn't decended from the King...

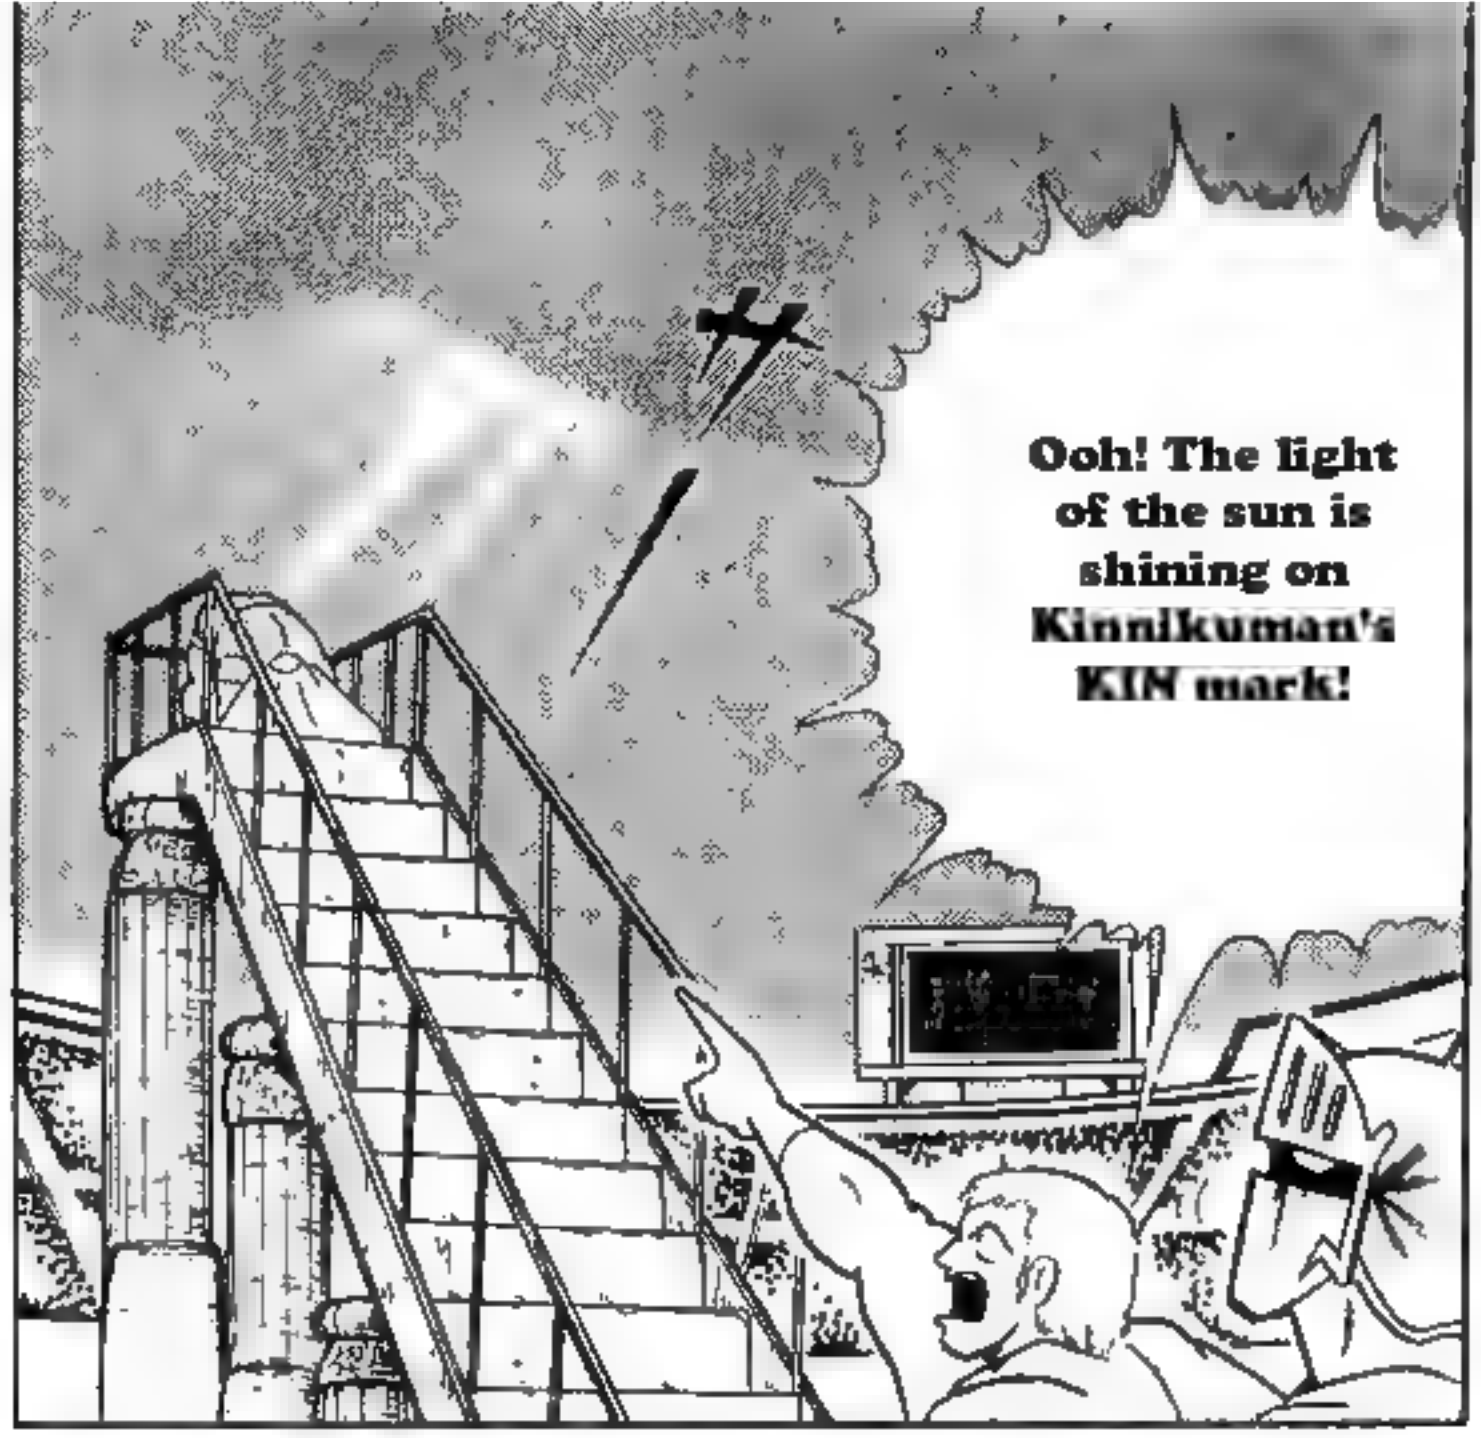
Only the Prince of the Kinniku Clan has a KIN mark that can shine a golden light!

Of course!

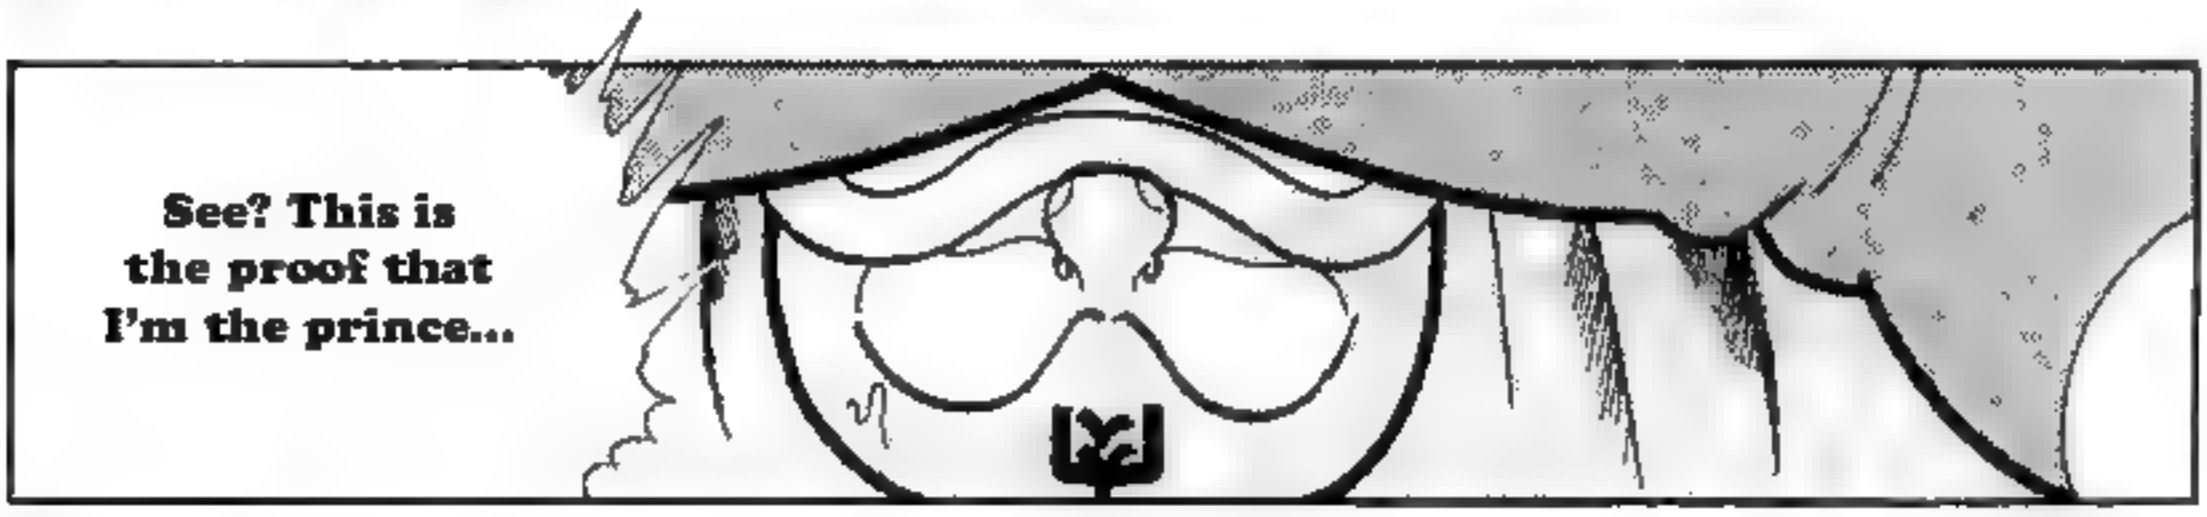
I don't want to see your filthy butt!

Just like this!

LOVE

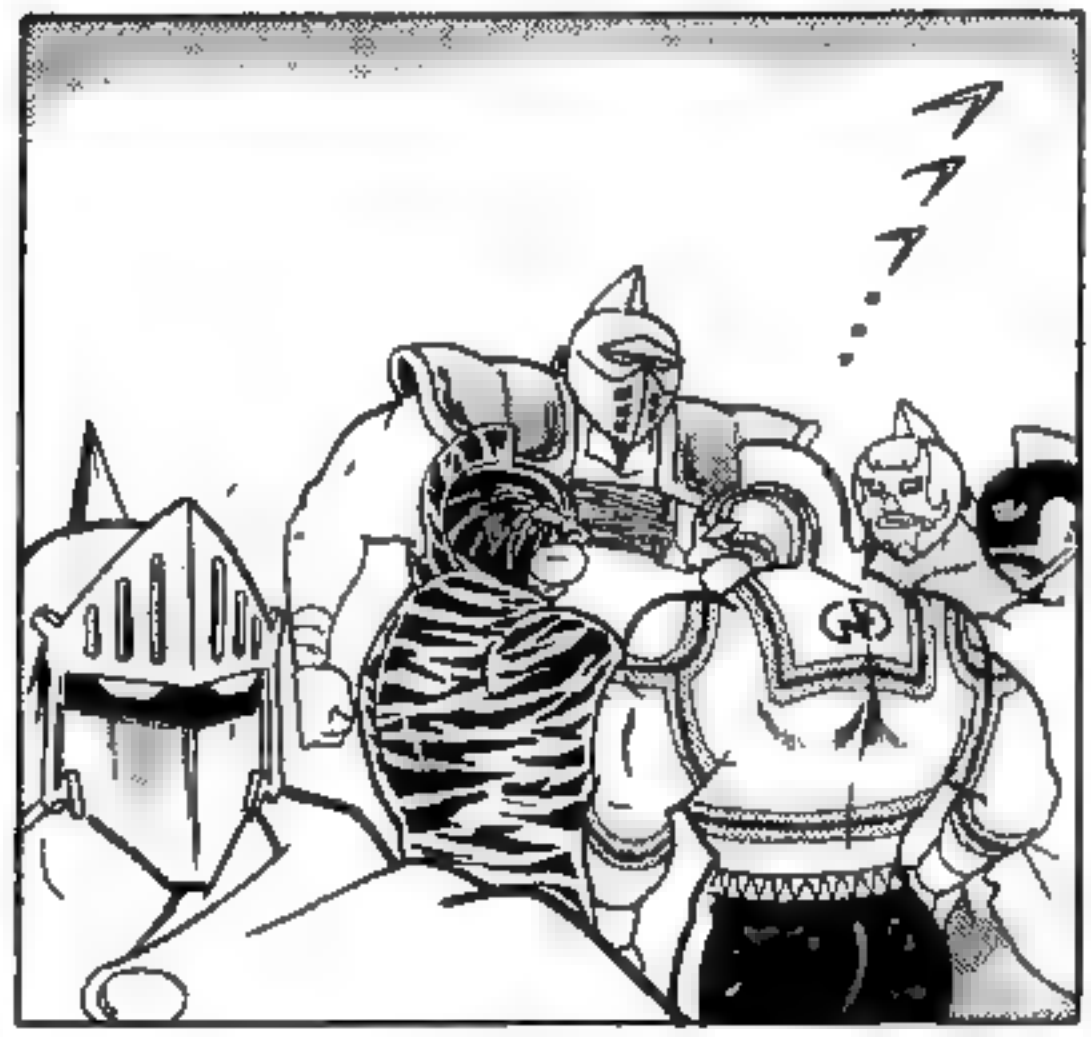


Ooh! The light of the sun is shining on Kinnikuman's KIN mark!

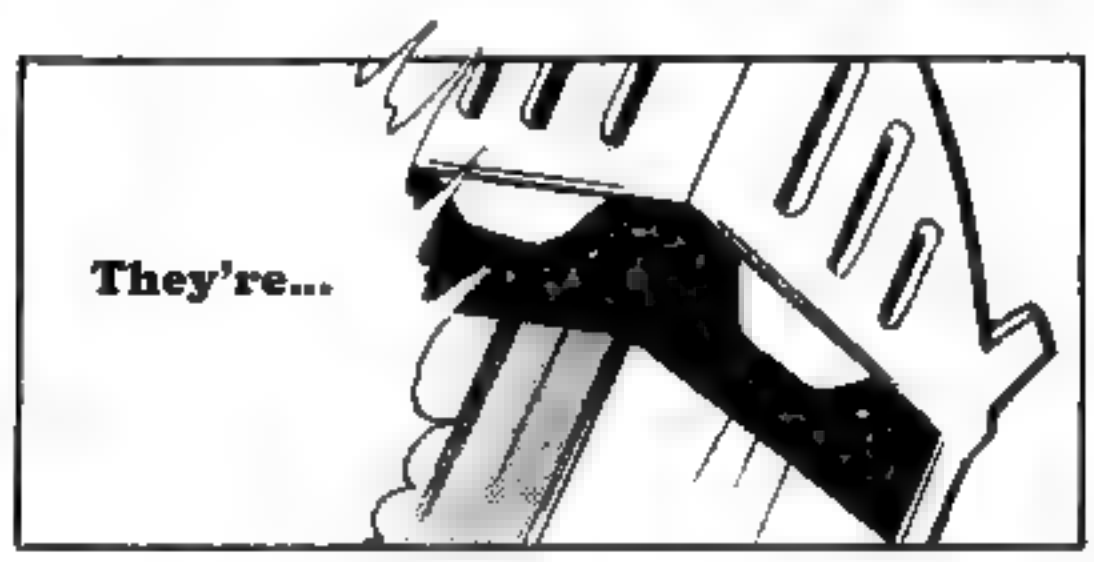


See? This is the proof that I'm the prince...

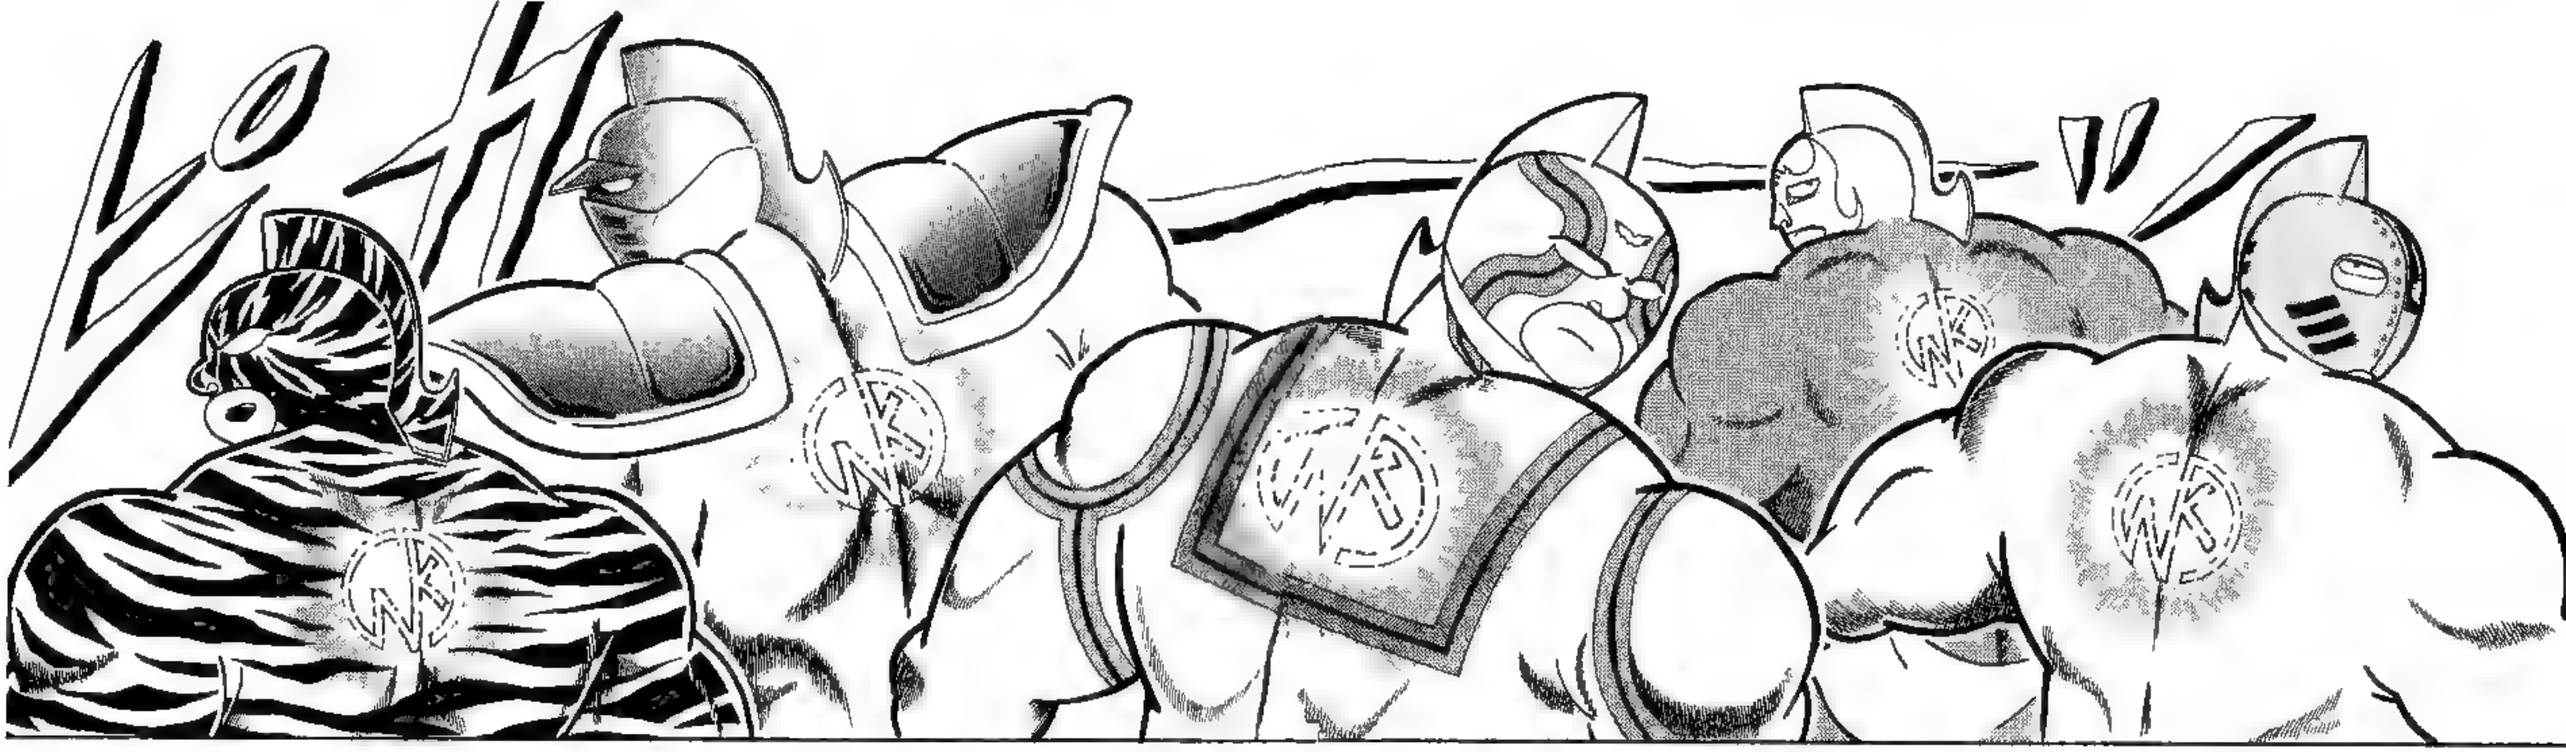
ああ



ファファ…



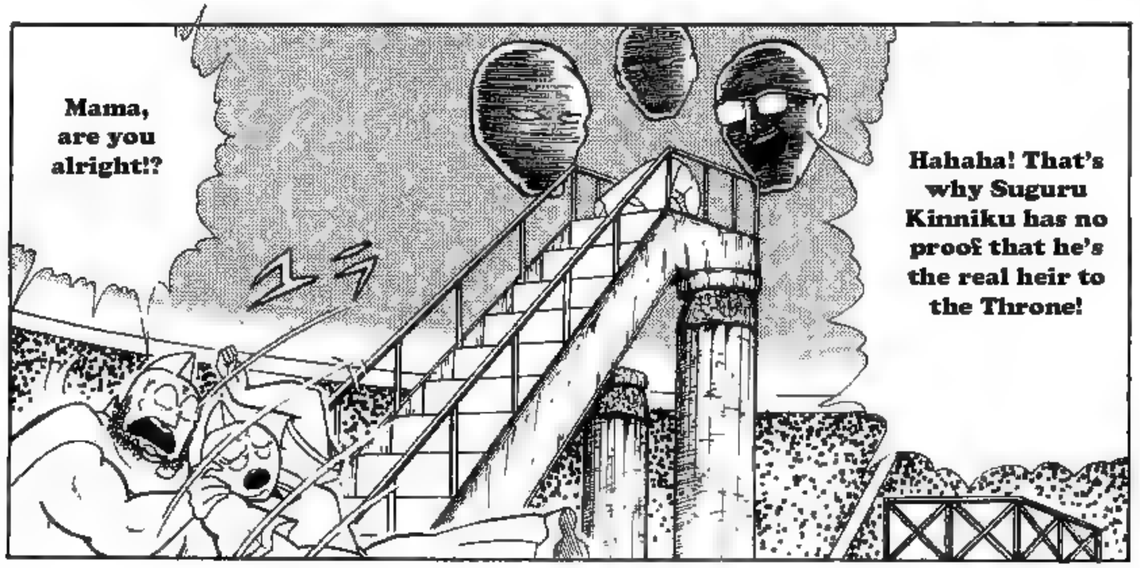
They're...



Lo-Hi

That's ridiculous...

Somehow the KIN marks on the Throne Heir Candidates are shining a golden light like Kinnikuman's!



Mama, are you alright!?
Hahaha! That's why Suguru Kinniku has no proof that he's the real heir to the Throne!

There hasn't been a scandle this big in the entire long history of Justice Chojin! If that's how it is, then there's no way to tell who's the real heir among these six!
Even you think that Suguru is a fake!
I'm not the only one who still believes in him! You're going to have to deal with all of the Justice Chojin who've worked with Suguru all this time and all of the fans here cheering for his enthronement!

The fake prince needs to go away!

Which one is the real heir to the Throne!? Hurry up and clear this up!

What are you saying, everyone!? Don't you all know that the real heir is me, Suguru Kinniku?

Cries of displeasure are ringing out from every seat!

ゴゴゴゴゴ

Guh!

.....

Hey Terryman, say something. I'm the only only one who can be the next King of Planet Kinniku!

Surely you understand, right Robin?

Brocken, tell me what's wrong!

Can't you two even tell me why? How could my close friends have turned against me!?

...and Robin is the Chief of Staff and is in a leadership position for young Chojin! We're only allowed to assist the true heir to the throne among you six!

You have to understand, Kinnikuman, that Robin and I want to help you, but I'm the Staff Officer of the Justice Chojin Corp...

Papa.

They have no choice. Even I'm the king of a planet before I'm a father, so I can't be your ally, either...

So then, all of you agree that the fact that I'm a prince is really up for dispute thanks to these five?

There is only one way we will recognize Suguru Kinniku as the true heir!

What are you saying, papa? Even if you can't prove it, I'm still you and mama's son!

Evil Gods, what would be the best way to prove that Suguru is the true heir to the throne?

That is to change the color of the snow-white cape we gave you earlier into a crimson red cape!

...the King of Planet Kinniku must be the strongest man in the Chojin World!

You've forgotten that there's something more important than the KIN mark or physical characteristics...

How do you turn a snow-white cape red?

Therefore, I think that the most practical way of deciding which of these six is the true heir to the throne is to have them fight in a wrestling tournament. The one who emerges the winner is clearly the most appropriate to become the true king!

So it's a "Scramble for the Kinniku Throne Survival Match"?

Kinnikuman, if you still insist that you are the true child of the king and queen, then you must crush the Five Fated Princes. As you do, the blood that flows from their bodies will dye your cape!

However, if Kinnikuman is defeated by any of these five, the cape will be passed to the victor and he will be given the right to try to dye the cape crimson!

When all five are defeated and the cape is completely red, we will approve you as the next king.

In other words, whoever dyes the white cape with the blood of his battles will become the next King of Planet Kinniku?

おわはは！

Do you have a problem with the Evil Gods' solution!?

I want to say that it's an interesting idea, but I can't waste my time with such a pointless fight!

Aah!

Do you really think that you have the power to defeat single and tag champion Kinnikuman!?

Who are those four shadows!?

PAOOO!!

Geh! An elephant Chojin!

Phoenix, who are those four surrounding you?

Yes.

Are you alright, Lord Phoenix?

What do you mean, "teammates"?

These four are my teammates for the Survival Match.

Well, that would be interesting.

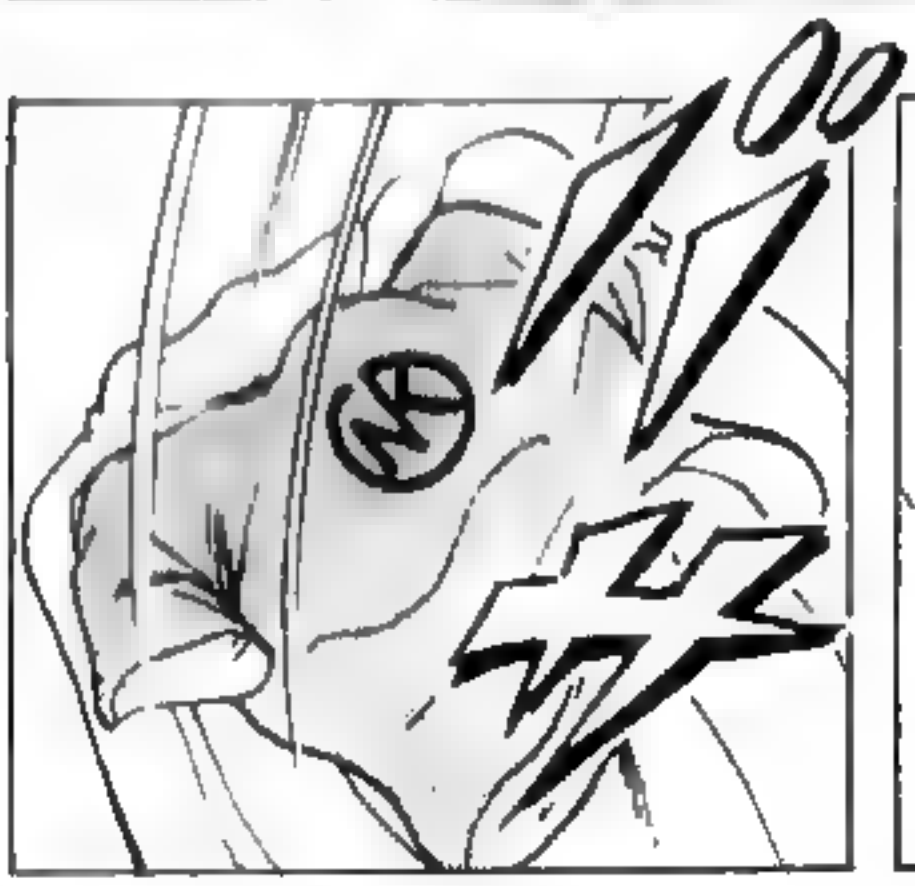
How about this fight be fought in a team format, which each of the potential kings leading their own team?

Wi... will someone le... lend me a hand?

All of you are just deciding things without me.

Hey... why are we having a team battle...?

Ri... right. I'm not the Prince of Planet Kinniku anymore.



Oh... Prince!

Heh heh heh, loser...

Suguru!

The inside of my heart feels as polluted as this dirty river.

Meat... it's best that you not follow me anymore. I'm not the Prince of Planet Kinniku... It's for the best if you serve whoever's appointed king the best you can...

To tell you the truth, I'm tired of living as the Prince of Planet Kinniku. I've already contacted Inoki and Baba so that I can work as a normal professional wrestler from now on.

Prince, I beg you, please fight once again! Don't do it for me or the Chojin World, do it for your own honor!

I know I don't need to repay you for the time that you saved me from being ripped apart by the Devil Chojin, but I don't have a reason to leave you!

Since I'm not a member of the Kinniku Clan anymore, I won't die by revealing my true face.

Therefore, I have no attachments to this mask anymore.

You're kidding! Don't throw that mask away so easily after how many times you've risked your life to protect it from countless enemies!

Hey, if I say I'm going to throw it away, then I'm going to throw it away!

The Prince I know wouldn't lose his spirit this easily! If you lose your mask now, Neptuneman would be turning in his grave!

Aah! The dirty river became clean the moment Prince showed his true face!

This magnificent power proves it more than the KIN mark ever could!

Prince, even if I'm the only one who still believes in your, you're the true heir to the throne!

Prince, this is it! This power is proof that you're the heir to the throne, even moreso than the KIN mark!
The dirty river became clean!

城取り合戦!! の巻

Meat, we're going back to Kokuritsu Stadium, where they're all waiting!
With this power, you should have no trouble getting rid of those fake heirs!

Scramble for the Kinniku Throne 4

Castle-Taking Battle!

...but due to the interruption by the Five Fated Princes, it's suddenly been changed to the "Scramble for the Kinniku Throne"!

We were originally planning to hold Kinnikuman's Enthronement Ceremony here at Kokuritsu Stadium...

Good, you're here.

KINNIKU MAN MARIPOSA

Since the Scramble for the Throne is being held as a team match...

...the participants are gathering around their team leaders from across the universe here at Kokritsu Stadium!

BIG BODY TEAM

KINNIKU MA BIG BODY

KINNIKU MAN

That means only the remaining five will fight for the crown of Planet Kinniku!

Heh heh heh, well then, it looks like Kinnikuman has abandoned his right to succeed the throne!

King Kinniku!

That idiot Suguru, where did he run off to? Is he trying to throw away the glory he's been building for the last 24 years?

In that case, other gods, we are now against each other. Now let's become the power for our reccomended prince so they can fight, shall we?

Right.

At any rate, the teams led by the Five Fated Princes are now present!

We got a bit disoganized, but I'm sure you'll be surprised by my members when they come later.

NIKU MAN SOL DIER

Soldier, haven't your teammates come yet?

M... Meat is out looking for him as we speak. We'll wait for him a bit longer.

KINNIKU MAN

Anyhow, as for Kinnikuman... did he really run away?

...However, those who stand above them don't look too kindly upon such irresponsibility.

If my mom and dad say they're waiting, then they can wait forever if they'd like!

Mama!

All of you, including Suguru, could possibly be our decendants. Therefore, we're at a neutral position and won't be biased in favor of Suguru!

I see.

Hmm... What do we do, mama...?

Whoever isn't here right now cannot be my son! We'll start the tournament with these five!

Queen Kinniku, I can understand your painted feelings.

Queen Kinniku has declared the opening of the Throne Succession Survival Match!

Well mother, how shall the match be held?

Here are five swords.

Right.

Kakuteki, bring it here!

Aim it anywhere on this carpet you'd like and throw it in!

Each of you take one.

Throw a sword into a carpet?

Hehe, doesn't this seem interesting?

Hiyah!

I'll try my hand at it.

Kinnikuman Phoenix, flooding with intelligence, has accurately thrown it near the center of the carpet!

The flying Chojin Kinnikuman Mariposa has made a flying leap and thrust his sword into the left side!

I'll go next!

Haa!

Yah!

Hiyah!

With that, the Five Fated Princes have all thrown their swords!

In a surging wave, the remaining three swords are thrown one after another!

Hold on, there's one sword left!

Guh!

Uwa!

Kinnikuman!

Who is that!?

Suguru, I always believed you'd come back.

Suguru!

I'm not claiming I'm a prince with just my mouth anymore. This time, I'll prove it by kicking your butts!

The positions of each of your swords will now decide your destiny.

With the return of Suguru Kinniku, the swords of all Six Fated Princes have been placed into the carpet.

What is Queen Kinniku thinking? She's suddenly cutting her arm with a sword!

What are you doing, mama!?

Ooh!

Ah, the blood that's flowing from mother's arm is...

Right, this is what mama has planned. Of course, this is an ideal battle method for the Throne Succession Survival Match.

The islands of Japan!

...taking some kind of shape!

Geeeh! That... shape is...

It's minor anemia.

Mama!

There must be some kind of meaning in those four places.

Hold on, our swords have landed in four places: Himeji, Kumamoto, Nagoya, and Fukushima.

That's how we're deciding the matchups for the Six Throne Succession Candidates.

Though she says it's the matchup, what are we supposed to do with just this?

I know this since I love to travel: Those four places all hold famous castles of Japan!

Famous castles!

Right. The most appropriate type of match for a Throne Succession Fight is a Castle-Taking Battle!

So then mama, we're fighitng in castles!?

March to Nagoya Castle, where the seeded Team Soldier will be waiting...

名古屋城

Splitting Japan into West and East, with the middle in Osaka, the East side will have Team Super Phoenix and Team Big Body fighitng at Aizuwakamatue Castle in Fukushima. The winner will...

...march into Himeji Castle, where the seeded Team Zebra will be waiting.

姫路城

Continuing, the Western side will have Team Kinnikuman and Team Mariposa fighting in Kumamoto Castle. The winner will...

In other words, whoever controls Osaka Castle will control Planet Kinniku!

The fight will take place in the Osaka Castle, a building that greatly resembles the palace on Planet Kinniku.

The warriors of the team who won in the east and the team who won in the west will meet in Osaka.

It is.

Heh heh heh... so we need to conquer like a feudal lord? This really is a suitable plan!

Now that we have approval from all six, I hereby declare the start of the Scramble for the Throne Survival Match!

All of them are boarding the planes simultaneously!

Now each Chojin will scatter throughout the nation on these airplanes provided by the Chojin Committee.

We're sorry, Kinnikuman. We'd be your teammates if we could, but...

Kinniku-man.

Team Kinnikuman, consisting only of Kinnikuman and Meat, is boarding the plane.

...If only you didn't have those medals on your chests...

You don't have any reason to help me.

There's nothing you could do. The two of you are now in leaderly positions as the Staff Officer and Chief of Staff of the Justice Chojin Corp.

Got it!

Kinnikuman, please board quickly!

Good luck, Kinnikuman...

Well then.

ゴォォォ

Look Kinnikuman, there's Kumamoto Castle!

The participating teams are aiming for thier castles with parachutes!

Do it!

How does that insult qualify as "intellegence"? Pinchman, crush them with your superhuman strength!

And with that, the battle between strength and intellegence has begun!

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Already within the ring is the advance guard of Team Mariposa, The Hawkman!

Switching over, we're here at Kumamoto Castle, home of Team Suguru Kinniku vs. Team Mariposa!

Yes I am.

Kinnikuman, are you seriously planning on defeating all of us with only two people on your team, including that glasses-wearing wimp?

Lord Mariposa, get the champagne ready for our victory celebration!

I've heard about them, and you should be able to take on both of these puny Chojin alone.

They're mocking us too, Hawkman. However, even if there are only two of them, don't go easy on them.

Prince, do your best to at least take out three of them. If you can do that, I'll find a way to take down the last two!

With you cheering me on, I know that I can defeat all five of these Chojin!

Prince.

Meat, all I need you to do is send me your encouragement from the sidelines.

Don't worry, I already know. You want me to prepare your victory champagne, too!

Meat.

No, I want you to prepare my spare underwear.

Seconds away!

KUDAMOTO CASTLE

AIDZUWAKAMATSU CASTLE

Hawkman sends a drop kick from high up!

Kurororo!

My body has taken drop kicks from heavyweight Chojin like Buffaloman! I'm immune to drop kicks from lightweights like you!

Nail Crash!

Guwah!

Geh!

Prince, behind you!

Hawk talons have ripped through the shoes on both of Hawkman's feet!

The sound of wings...

I won't be hit by the same...

...move twice!

You... how dare you hurt my beautiful body!?

Kinnikuman is breaking Hawkman's leg with Terryman's Spinning Toe Hold!

That was the sound of a living body being struck by metal!

However, it looks like Pinchman is hitting Mammothman in a one-sided fight!

Right, a huge screen has been installed into each arena so that we can see what's going on in the others.

Taking Pinchman's steel slaps, the retreating Mammothman shows that even intellegence is not match for this kind of power.

Hey, what happened to all of that big talk about intellegence being the most important thing for wrestlers?

AIDZUWAKA-MATSU CASTLE

Alright, shall we end this?

Geh!

Pinchman has combined his left and right steel arms to create a pincher that's attacking the true face beneath Mammothman's fur!

Take this:

Pinch Claw!

Hmph... You should be the one throwing in the towel for Pinchman.

Dahahaha! Super Phoenix, if you want to throw in the towel for your cute elephant, now's your chance!

Geeeeh, what's this!?

My true face cannot ever be hurt! Not even my parents dared to raise a hand to my true face...

Playtime is over!

Powerful Nose Breaker!

KK...

Mammothman has defeated Pinchman with a lightning fast counterattack!

Mammothman has completely dominated him!

Guogogogo!

Next up is my second guard!

Go for it, Leopardon!

.....

Nose Fencing!

Gyaaaa!

He's somehow so strong! Mammothman, who is called a Chojin of intellegence, is overpowering the power Chojin, defeating two in the blink of an eye!

あぁ…

What a terrifying guy...

KUMAMOTO CASTLE

Keh!

I've fought Devil Chojin and Perfect Chojin before, but I've never seen anything like Mammothman before...

I thought the hawk on his head was just a decoration, but it's part of his body!

Ho-hohoho, don't let your guard down, Kinnikuman. Your opponent right now is Hawkman!

Owa!

Crap.

There, that's high enough!

Uwaaaa! What are you doing!?

The hawk that landed on Kinnikuman's head is now lifting his body!

Taaah!

Mama, Suguru isn't dead yet!

It can't be! I failed to stab his heart, even with perfect speed, timing, and impact...!?

Hey, watch it.

Somehow Kinnikuman caught the Spiral Bullet with both hands, stopping it before it got to his heart!

Great, Prince!

This is the Burning Inner Strength that's said to rival the 100 million Chojin Power of the Chojin Gods...

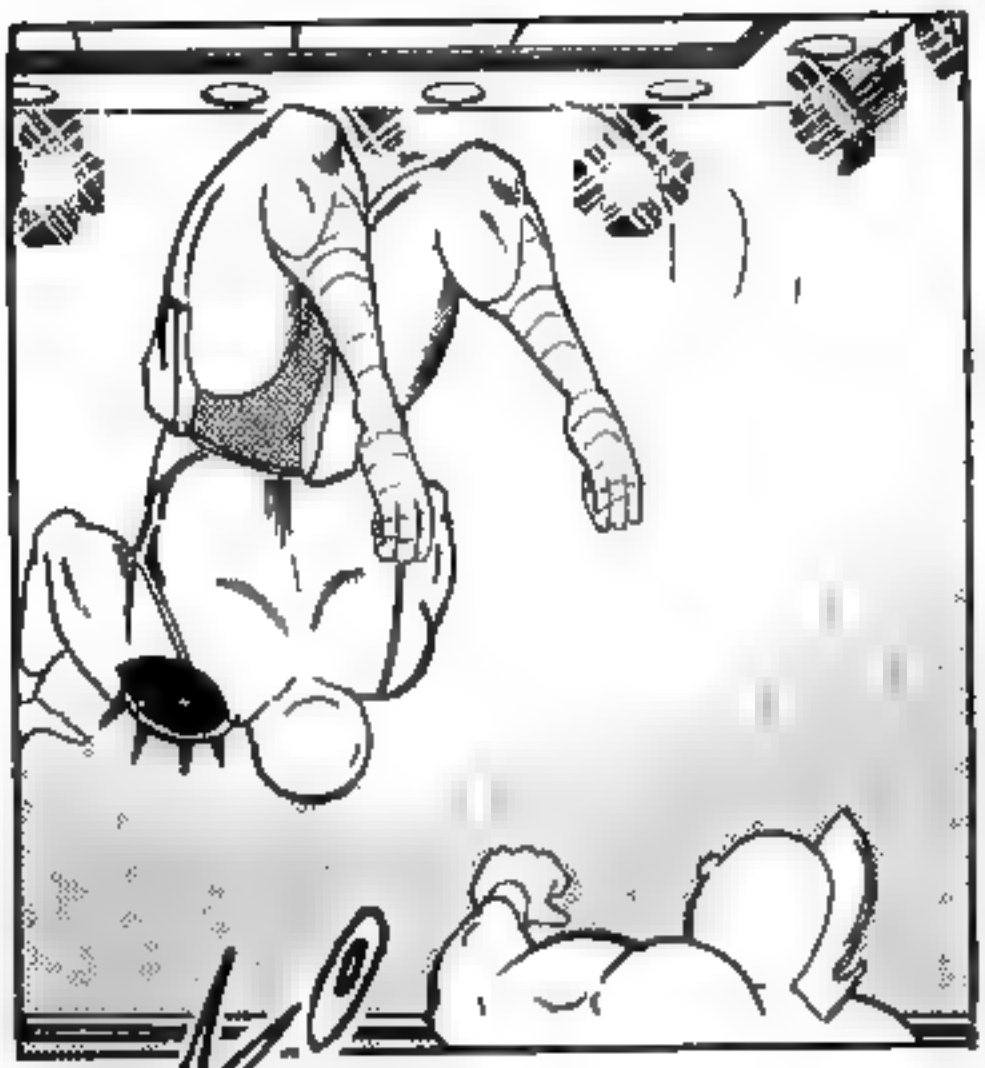
HAWKMAN! KINNIKUMAN, WHO JUST CAUGHT YOUR SPIRAL BULLET, HAS A SPECIAL POWER: THE BURNING INNER STRENGTH, WHICH IS EVEN FEARED BY US EVIL GODS.

What's that sound!?

What? It's the sound of the TV camera that are recording the match!

I'm going to become the Chojin who defeated Kinnikuman's Burning Inner Strength and finally be recognized by the Evil Gods!

Kinnikuman, I'm tired of being a mere Chojin soldier...



Aah! The hawk that was on Harkman's head is becoming a Birdman!

Now it's pushing Kinnikuman down!

Hoo

Owa!

Somehow Kinnikuman has been thrown into a Front Suplex by both Hawkman and the hawk!

Ah... That hawk! Isn't that hawk kind of...?

Ugh...

Kinniku-man is down!

...except for those who are stated in the iron-clad rules of a singles match.

Robert, you can't bring a radio into class.

I'm sorry sir, but in Japan your close friend, Mr. Kinnikuman, is getting hurt badly by Team Mariposa.

And if Kinnikuman is defeated, then Meat will have to take on all five of them by himself!

We'll continue the lesson.

I appreciate it, but as Chojin Chief of Staff, I'm a neutral party... If I go to save Kinnikuman now, then everything I'm teaching you will be a lie.

Mr. Robin, since we're all alright with it, please go and save Kinnikuman!

Mr. Terry seems to be watching it the most carefully...

Our assignment this afternoon is to watch the Scramble for the Throne Survival Match to study the moves of experienced Chojin, but...

Dickieman, I'm a bit tired. Instead of class today, why don't you go practice on your own?

Teacher, that's enough TV. Please teach me how to do the Spinning Toe Hold.

er...

I'm sorry, Kinnikuman. If I could, I'd run over there and help you right now!

But as a Chojin Staff Officer, I can't do that because I have to guide the young Chojin!

If only I didn't have these Chojin Staff Officer Medals...

Prince, hold on!

Kinnikuman has twisted his leg and is having trouble standing...

Ugh, this is painful. My head is throbbing...

Oh, Robin, Terry, did you finally decide to come?

Ho-hohoho!

Hurry up and tag me out!

Huh?

Kinnikuman, in every fight up to this point, you've had to rely on power from your fellow Justice Chojin. Thanks to that, you've developed the immature expecation that someone will always appear to help you whenever you're in trouble. This time is different, since you have nobody!

それは本当ではなった現実から逃げよ！

That may be true... I always have my allies by my side...

So I can't hold anyone's hand!

But this fight is different...

...as the King of Planet Kinniku!

This time I'm fighting so that I can be recognized...

Kinnikuman is standing up with energy, as if his earlier injuries were all in his head!

Yah!

Heh heh heh, whatever it is won't work. Hawkman, I'm interested... Go ahead and walk into this trap.

What is Kinnikuman thinking? He's suddenly haning off the lights on the ceiling!

Right.

Hey Hawkman, this is as far as you go!

Tah!

Now!

Just a bit closer...

Die!

Spiral Bullet!

Kinnikuman narrowly dodges and Hawkman crashes into the lights!

What are you doing, Hawkman? He's right in front of your eyes!

Where is he? Where is Kinnikuman?

Due to Hawkman destroying the lightes, the area has become a bit darker!

He can't see me, Mariposa. Let me tell you why: Birds have night blindness. That means their eyes don't work very well in the dark.

Geh!

You've fallen into my trap!

Kinnikuman is firing off rapid Drop Kicks, not giving his opponent a moment to rest!

He's up! Kinnikuman has been raised thanks to everyone's willpower!

Ho-hohoho, no matter how many times you get up, you can't pull me down!

If Hawkman's wings stop for even a second, I can win this!

Every bird has a moment when he has to relax his wings...

Heh... really, what am I going to do?

がく！

...so the prey is distracted for a moment.

When a real hawk aims for its prey, first it flaps its wings strongly to intimidate the prey...

Spiral Bullet!

At that moment, the hawk stops flapping its wings to descend directly toward its prey!

Hawkman is aiming for the staggering Kinnikuman, like a hawk capturing its prey!

I've been waiting for this moment!

Hawk-man is finally doing it...

...Kinniku-man, you won't be leaving the ring alive.

How dare you do this to my cute little Hell Bird!? That's terrible!

Hawkman's wings have appeared on their own, and have turned into blades that are chopping into Kinnikuman's back!

Hahaha, nice job, Hawkman!

This is bad! Prince will be killed if he can't find a way to deal with the Wing Cutter!

What kind of advice is that? Are you telling me to die!?

Prince, I have an idea! Go ahead and take Hawkman's finishing Wing Cutter technique!

Right!

Ho-hoho-

I see!

Homing Instinct?

No, we're going to use a bird's homing instinct!

Looking away isn't allowed!

Ho-hohoho, Hell Bird, brilliantly attack your enemy!

What's going on? Mister VTR has actually stopped Kinnikuman's movements along with the video by pressing the pause button!

Ka-kakaka, the Kinnikuman on my screen isn't just a video, it's real!

Therefore, whatever happens to the Kinnikuman on my screen...

Everything I create in this world is real, stupid!

Oh, of course! I already know the Kinniku Clan Swimming Style, passed down through the Kinniku Clan!

Come to think of it, I've experienced a fight like this before, during the deathmatch with Atlantis!

OSAKA CASTLE

Gyahahahaha, great, Suguru! Use your arms and legs more!

Dear, you're acting indecent!

Kakaka... you're so naive! What you experienced during your fight with Atlantis was fighting in a pond!

Don't forget, this isn't a quiet pond, it's an ocean filled with the fury of nature!

Huh?

Owa! These huge swirls are spinning on the ocean's surface!

Mister VTR has set up a slide of whirling tides!

Tah!

Uwa!

Ka-kakaka, die!

Prince, swim and escape!

Kinnikuman is quickly being swallowed up by the tides!

Owa!

I can't swim well since the tides are so strong!

These whirling tides have swallowed up many boats in the past, detroying them and leaving behind only tiny pieces that float around on the ocean's surface... No matter how much a Chojin may try, he can't outswim these tides!

Will I end up like that, now?

It's just like he said, it's full of ship fragments!

Will Kunikuman drown to death without getting a single hit on Mister VTR!?

Prince!

Kinnikuman has sunk into the depths of the ocean!
